lento

A little more fluent.

Lessons

Minigames

Statistics

Profile

Small steps.
Real understanding.

Maya Chen
Spanish learner · A2

YOUR SPANISH PATH

A little more fluent.

Good morning, Maya. One conversation, one step forward.

✓ Unit 2 · At home

Unit 3 · Everyday life

Unit 4 · Making plans →

Out in the city

2 of 5 complete

✓	Finding your way Directions & useful places	Completed	01
✓	Around the neighborhood Talk about familiar places	Completed	02
☕	At the café Make a polite request · 6 min	Up next	03
🧺	At the market Ask about prices & quantities	After lesson 3	04
💬	Put it all together A short everyday conversation	After lesson 4	05

A clear path forward. Revisit any completed lesson whenever you like.

UNIT 3 · EVERYDAY LIFE

Out in the city

Small conversations. More independence.

2 of 5 lessons complete 40%

Continue · At the café →

By the end of this unit

Find your way, order politely, and ask for what you need in everyday Spanish.

UNIT 3 · AT THE CAFÉ

What does this mean?

Choose the English translation. Take a moment to notice the polite request.

AT THE CAFÉ

Listen

Quisiera un café, por favor.

A I would like a coffee, please.

B I want the bill, please.

C Do you have any coffee?

Select an answer to check.

Check answer

Take your time.

Listen to the phrase or read it again, then choose one English translation.

Check answer becomes available after you select an option.

Understanding first. Speed can wait.

Small steps.
Real understanding.

Maya Chen
Spanish learner · A2

Back to lessons

Polite requests · Question 3 of 6

UNIT 3 · AT THE CAFÉ

What does this mean?

Choose the English translation. Take a moment to notice the polite request.

AT THE CAFÉ

Listen

Quisiera un café, por favor.

- ✓ I would like a coffee, please. YOUR ANSWER · CORRECT
- B I want the bill, please.
- C Do you have any coffee?

Your answer is saved.

Continue →

Exactly right.

"Quisiera" means "I would like"—a polite way to order. Add "por favor" to say "please."

A phrase to take with you

Quisiera + what you need

Quisiera un té, por favor.
I would like a tea, please.

Coffee or the bill?

Un café = a coffee. La cuenta = the bill.
For the bill, say: "La cuenta, por favor."

Understanding first. Speed can wait.

Lessons
Minigames
Statistics
Profile

Back to lessons

Polite requests · Question 3 of 6

UNIT 3 · AT THE CAFÉ

What does this mean?

Choose the English translation. Take a moment to notice the polite request.

AT THE CAFÉ

Listen

Quisiera un café, por favor.

- ✓ I would like a coffee, please.
  CORRECT ANSWER
- ✗ I want the bill, please.
  YOUR ANSWER · INCORRECT
- C Do you have any coffee?

A small correction.

Try again

Continue

Not quite. Let's unpack it.

I would like a coffee, please.

"Quisiera" means "I would like"—a polite way to order. Add "por favor" to say "please."

A phrase to take with you

Quisiera + what you need

Quisiera un té, por favor.
I would like a tea, please.

Coffee or the bill?

Un café = a coffee. La cuenta = the bill.
For the bill, say: "La cuenta, por favor."

Understanding first. Speed can wait.

Small steps. Real understanding.

MC
Maya Chen
Spanish learner · A2

Small steps.
Real understanding.

Maya Chen
Spanish learner · A2

SPANISH BEYOND THE LESSON

The world is your lesson.

Four small ways to practise real-life Spanish. Choose what you're curious about today.

Social media posts

A2

Find the meaning behind everyday expressions.

CAFÉ OLIVA · @cafeoliva

Los domingos son para el café y las conversaciones sin prisa.

2 min · Everyday expressions

Try it →

News & forums

A2

Read local stories. Pick out the details that matter.

EL BARRIO · MADRID

Un nuevo parque para el barrio

3 min · Reading comprehension

Try it →

Conversations

A2

Choose a natural reply and keep the conversation going.

AT CAFÉ OLIVA · WITH LUCÍA

¡Hola! ¿Qué te pongo?
→ Practise ordering something to drink.

4 min · Everyday conversations

Try it →

Quick-time practice

A2

Recall familiar phrases in short, optional timed rounds.

EVERYDAY PHRASES

¿Cuánto cuesta?
→ Recognise a useful phrase at the market.

1 min · Phrase recall

Try it →

Chosen for your level. Made for real life. Every answer is a chance to understand a little more.

Back to minigames

Reading practice · Question 1 of 3

NEWS & FORUMS · A2

Read a little. Notice a lot.

Look for the detail that tells you when. The answer is in the neighborhood news.

EL BARRIO · MADRID

Un nuevo parque para el barrio

El nuevo parque del barrio abre mañana a las nueve. Tiene árboles, bancos y una zona para niños.

LOCAL NEWS · ADAPTED FOR A2

FROM THE NEIGHBORHOOD FORUM

Ana: ¿La entrada es gratuita?
El Barrio: Sí, la entrada es gratuita para todos.

When does the new park open?

A Today at nine.

B Tomorrow at nine.

C Tomorrow at noon.

Take your time.

Read the article, then choose one answer. You can reread the news as often as you need.

Check answer becomes available after you select an option.

Select an answer to check.

Check answer

NEWS & FORUMS · A2

Read a little. Notice a lot.

Look for the detail that tells you when. The answer is in the neighborhood news.

EL BARRIO · MADRID

Un nuevo parque para el barrio

El nuevo parque del barrio abre mañana a las nueve. Tiene árboles, bancos y una zona para niños.

LOCAL NEWS · ADAPTED FOR A2

FROM THE NEIGHBORHOOD FORUM

Ana: ¿La entrada es gratuita?
El Barrio: Sí, la entrada es gratuita para todos.

When does the new park open?

A Today at nine.

Tomorrow at nine.
YOUR ANSWER · CORRECT

C Tomorrow at noon.

Exactly right.

The park opens tomorrow at nine.

“Mañana” is tomorrow; “hoy” is today. Read the phrase together: “mañana a las nueve” — tomorrow at nine.

Your answer is saved.

Continue

NEWS & FORUMS · A2

Read a little. Notice a lot.

Look for the detail that tells you when. The answer is in the neighborhood news.

EL BARRIO · MADRID

Un nuevo parque para el barrio

El nuevo parque del barrio abre mañana a las nueve.
Tiene árboles, bancos y una zona para niños.

LOCAL NEWS · ADAPTED FOR A2

FROM THE NEIGHBORHOOD FORUM

Ana: ¿La entrada es gratuita?
El Barrio: Sí, la entrada es gratuita para todos.

When does the new park open?

- Today at nine.
  YOUR ANSWER · INCORRECT
- Tomorrow at nine.
  CORRECT ANSWER
- C Tomorrow at noon.

Not quite. Let's unpack it.

The park opens tomorrow at nine.

"Mañana" is tomorrow; "hoy" is today. Read the phrase together: "mañana a las nueve" — tomorrow at nine.

A small correction. A clearer meaning.

Got it, continue

lento

A little more fluent.

Lessons

Minigames

Statistics

Profile

Small steps.
Real understanding.

Maya Chen
Spanish learner · A2

KNOWLEDGE THAT STAYS WITH YOU

Your progress, without pressure.

Every lesson adds a little more understanding. Here's what's growing in your Spanish.

18 Lessons learned
Across your Spanish course

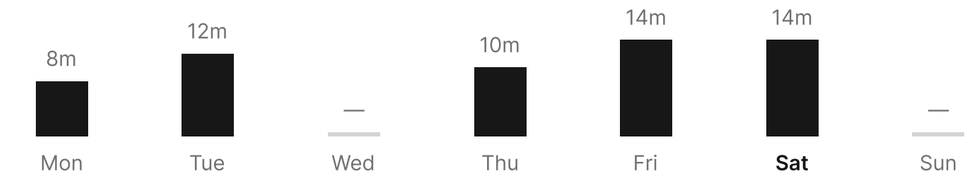

126 Words explored
A growing everyday vocabulary

6 Real-life texts
Posts, news & neighborhood stories

Time with Spanish

12–18 October 2026

58 minutes this week

4 lessons · 3 real-life texts this week

Saturday · Today

Growing confidence

Within A2

Reading — Everyday texts · 64%

Listening — Familiar phrases · 48%

Speaking — Short conversations · 36%

Based on the skills you've practised, not a test score.
Listening is a good next step.

UNIT 3 · OUT IN THE CITY

Next: At the café

2 of 5 lessons · 40%

Continue learning →

Some days are for learning. Some days are for living. Both are part of the process.

Small steps.
Real understanding.

Maya Chen
Spanish learner · A2

Back to minigames

SOCIAL MEDIA POSTS · A2

A little Spanish in your feed.

Read Café Oliva's post, then find the meaning of the expression in context.

Café Oliva
@cafeoliva · Madrid · 2 h

Los domingos son para el café y las conversaciones sin prisa. ☕

#DomingosEnOliva

12 comments

Let the words around the expression be your compass.

What does "sin prisa" mean here?

A Without rushing.

B Without speaking.

C Before breakfast.

Select an answer to check.

Check answer

Back to minigames

Everyday phrases · Phrase 4 of 8

QUICK-TIME PRACTICE · A2

Familiar words, a little faster.

Recognise useful phrases in a short round. Start the timer when you're ready.

Timer not started
Ready when you are

00:10 / 00:10

AT THE MARKET

¿Cuánto cuesta?

3 of 8 phrases reviewed

10 seconds per phrase

Start timer

A short sprint, not a race. The timer is optional.

Practise without timer →

What does this phrase mean?

A Where is the market?

B How much does it cost?

C What time does it close?

Select an answer to check.

Check answer

Back to minigames

At the café · Reply 2 of 4

CONVERSATIONS · A2

Keep the conversation going.

You're ordering a coffee at Café Oliva. Choose a reply that answers Lucía's question.

Lucía · Café Oliva
A morning coffee in Madrid

Lucía

¡Hola! ¿Qué te pongo?

You

Quisiera un café, por favor.

Lucía

¿Con leche o solo?

Your turn

How would you ask for milk?

A La cuenta, por favor.

B Con leche, por favor.

C Un té, por favor.

Select an answer to check.

Check answer

Let Lucía's question be your compass.

YOUR LEARNING PROFILE

Your learning, your pace.

Make room for Spanish in a way that feels right for you.

Edit profile

Maya Chen

Learning Spanish since September 2026

For the conversations that matter.

A2 Spanish
Elementary

Unit 3: Out in the city

2 of 5 lessons complete · 40%

18	126	6
Lessons learned	Words explored	Real-life texts

A little space for learning

Your daily intention
A gentle guide, not a requirement — 10 mindful minutes

Learning reminders
Come back when you're ready — Off

Translation language
Explanations and answer feedback — English

Pronunciation audio
Hear natural Spanish clearly — Normal speed

Growing confidence

Within A2

Reading — Everyday texts · 64%

Listening — Familiar phrases · 48%

Speaking — Short conversations · 36%

ACCESSIBILITY

Accessibility settings

Choose the settings that help you learn with clarity, comfort, and independence.

Visual needs — 3 options

Contrast
Higher contrast for clearer text and controls — High contrast

Colourblind mode
Use stronger, distinct colour cues for answers and states — Protanopia

Screen-reader support
Announce navigation, lessons, and quiz feedback — On

Hearing needs — 3 options

Captions & transcripts
Show text for audio lessons and conversations — Always on

No audio
Mute all audio and focus on reading only — Off

Audio only
Hide visuals and focus on listening only — Off

Motor needs — 3 options

Larger targets
Increase button and control size — On

Keyboard navigation
Use arrow keys and Enter to move through lessons — On

Untimed practice
Remove timers from quizzes and exercises — On

Older adults / readability — 3 options

Font size
Adjust text size for comfort — Large

Line spacing
Add more room between lines — 1.8x

Reduced motion
Minimize animations and transitions — On

SOCIAL MEDIA POSTS · A2

A little Spanish in your feed.

Read Café Oliva's post, then find the meaning of the expression in context.

Café Oliva
@cafeoliva · Madrid · 2 h

Los domingos son para el café y las conversaciones sin prisa. ☕

#DomingosEnOliva

12 comments

Read for the feeling, not just the words

Let the surrounding words be your compass. This post is about slow Sundays.

What does "sin prisa" mean here?

✓ Without rushing.
YOUR ANSWER · CORRECT

B Without speaking.

C Before breakfast.

Exactly right.

"Sin" + "prisa" = without hurry. Here, the conversations are relaxed—not silent.

One useful expression, understood.

Next post →

lento

A little more fluent.

Lessons

Minigames

Statistics

Profile

Small steps.
Real understanding.

Maya Chen
Spanish learner · A2

Back to minigames

Everyday phrases · Phrase 4 of 8

QUICK-TIME PRACTICE · A2

Familiar words, a little faster.

Recognise useful phrases in a short round. The timer pauses while you learn from each answer.

Timer paused
Answer reviewed

00:07 / 00:10

AT THE MARKET

¿Cuánto cuesta?

4 of 8 phrases reviewed

10 seconds per phrase

A pace that works for you

This timer is just for quick-time practice. You can practise without it; your learning progress stays the same.

Practise without timer

What does this phrase mean?

A Where is the market?

How much does it cost?
YOUR ANSWER · CORRECT

C What time does it close?

Exactly right.

“¿Cuánto cuesta?” asks the price of one item. For several items, use “¿Cuánto cuestan?”

Ready when you are.

Next phrase

lento

A little more fluent.

Lessons

Minigames

Statistics

Profile

Small steps.

Real understanding.

MC

Maya Chen

Spanish learner · A2

Back to minigames

At the café · Reply 2 of 4

CONVERSATIONS · A2

Keep the conversation going.

You're ordering a coffee at Café Oliva. Choose a reply that answers Lucía's question.

L

Lucía · Café Oliva

A morning coffee in Madrid

Lucía

¡Hola! ¿Qué te pongo?

You

Quisiera un café, por favor.

Lucía

¿Con leche o solo?

▾ Your turn · You'd like coffee with milk.

How would you ask for milk?

A La cuenta, por favor.

✓ Con leche, por favor.

C Un té, por favor.

▾ Not quite. Try this reply.

Con leche, por favor. · With milk, please.

Lucía asks "With milk or black?" Reply "Con leche" for milk. "La cuenta" asks for the bill.

A useful way to order

"¿Qué te pongo?" means "What can I get you?"—a friendly phrase often heard in Spanish cafés.

Listen for what's being asked.

Use correct reply ▾